

Heriot Toun is located in the Scottish Borders, 17miles south of Edinburgh, 17 miles north of Galashiels on the A7.

The village of Heriot is signposted on the approach from the north and south and the sign B709 Innerleithen marks the turnoff (Be sure not to confuse this road with the road to Innerleithen 5 miles further north, wait for the 'Heriot' sign before you turn off).

Turn off the A7, pass through the village and stay on the road for exactly 1 mile, the studio is on the right hand side up above the farmhouse.
